TO ADVERTISERS.

The circulation of the I ally and Tri-Weekly editions of the Patriot, combined, exceeds largely that of any other newspaper printed in Nashville. It is these editions that are generally used for advertising The Patriot therefore, is the best advertising medium in the city.

Accrount .- An old man named Kingle fell from the bloff at the lower landing on Sunday evening, and injured himself so severely that his life is dess still suspended in the Cumberland, the ice having paired of. His breast-bone and three of his ribs were broken and his head very badly injured.

The weather has moderated within the past two days to such an extent that the snow and ice, which seemed to hold everything within a Titan grasp, bas, to use a common phrase, "let up," and both are disappearing.

REMOVED .- We notice that C. H. Anderson, to one of the new buildings recently put up on Broadway. He has a fine store-room now and increased facilities for carrying on his business.

Mup .- Our streets are in a very miserable plight, owing to the mud occasioned by the late thaw .-How will they explain the discrepancy?

A PRIVATE RESIDENCE BURNT .- A letter from residence of Mr. Jas. E. Mickley, near that village, was destroyed by fire on the 224 inst. The progress of the flames was so rapid, that, notwithstanding the energetic efforts of the civizens, but a damaged state. The upper rooms of the building were occupied by Mr. Wm. We had the pleasure of resignation of G. B. Goodwin. Election to be held on set at 11%c. examining a model of this ingenious invention yes. Tuesday, February 34, 1857. teaday. If the expectations of the inventor should be realized, its use, combined with Reeder's Safety Valve, will produce quite a revolution in steamboating. With speed trebled and explosions readered almost, if not altogether, impossible, steamboat navigation will come into more general favor.

JEWELLY -A large and fine assortment of watches and jawelry has just been received per express by Gilbert & Co., Broad street. This stock embraces every variety, style and patten of jewelry from a plain ring up to splendid silver and gold watches. The ladies particularly will find a complete assortment of beautiful articles which to adorn themselvee, and they may rest assured that Gilbert will furnish them anything in this line upon the most accommodating terms. RIVER AND STEAMBOAT NEWS .- Navigation is entirely monopolized the channel.

A number of boats are now lying at the wharf, awaiting a thaw, which, from present indications, will soon be slong. We copy below, from the Louisville Journal, the details of the damage done steamboate at Portland

"The river gorged yesterday morning below New Albany, and to is caused a rise of several feet at dealer in Iron Castings, Corn Conshers, &c., has Portland, and floated off a large quantity of ice has removed his establishment from Market Street | which had accumulated above. This ice came down with great force against the boats lying at Ports land, and parted their lines.

"The Alvin Adams, which was lying in shore her whole length and some distance above the fleet escaped, but all the others were iving close together, with their sterns out in the stream. The boats were lving in the following rotation: Virginia, Southerner, Empire, Fanny Bullitt, L. J. Ward, a According to "gnese bone" theoriets cold weather new bull, A. L. NEW YORK, Jan. 26. - Passengers by the Adger give gloomy accounts of Walker's condition The seizure of the transit route and steemboats by Spencer is confirmed. Spencer states that he acted in behalf of Vanderbilt. President Mora, of the Nicaragua Government, has issued a proclamation granting pardon to Walker's men and free passage back to the States.

Many of Walker's men, both officers and privates, are deserting. Walker was still at Rivas with 600 men; another account says 1200. The reports are confirmed that Henningsen fought his way out of Granada and joined Walker, and that Gen. Ciriton, with a large body of men, had pronounced for Walker at Leon. Walker retook Rivas without losing a man. Captain Saunders, with his rifles, has advanced to Leon to occupy that post.

Art winds the rallway through the mountains and the mud; makes her machines of wood and iron, to act as if with knowledge and annihilates space with lightning tamed down to the tuteledge of a boy. Nothing is too lofty for her touch and nothing too humble. A new proof of this old conviction has just fallen under our notice, in the shape of a Carnan-vic Pill, from the Laboratory of that world rengwhed If we understand the subject, he has earried that article to the far heat perfection of which it is capable. Instead of employing Drugs in its composition, as we have always thought the necessary and only way, he has with consummate skill extracted the circus of the medicine to be emplayed and combined them alone in their purity together. The composition is then mixed and rolled by machinery and steam power into a sperold pill which is wrapped in an envelope of gelatine, for protection from the effects of weather or time, and then thickly coated with sugar, to serve as its passport over the palate. Notwithstanding all the labored perfection they are offered to the Public at less than one centeach. However humble the department, we think this may be eafe'y characterized as the consummation of Art in
